TWO MINUTE TRAINING

SUBJECT:

'Twas the Night before Christmas - The Twenty-Third Annual Edition

'Twas the night before Christmas, and throughout the Site,
Not a worker was stirring, on this very cold night.
Workers were nestled, at home in their beds,
While visions of compliance, danced in their heads.

When out in the Bone Yard, there arose such a clatter,
A worker jumped up, to see what was the matter.
Away to the exit, the worker did soar,
Grabbing the handle, and opening the door.

When what to the worker's eyes should appear,
But a miniature sleigh, and eight tiny reindeer.
With a little old driver, so lively and quick.
The worker was sure, that this must be St. Nick.

His eyes how they twinkled, his dimples how merry!
His cheeks were like roses, his nose like a cherry.
It could be a worker, or just Santa Claus,
Or it could be a drug test - a drug test for cause.

Each deer carried a book, but no book was the same,
And the little driver called, each book by its name.
Now OSHA, DOT, Clean Water, and RCRA,
Oh CERCLA, TSCA, Clean Air, and SARA

Seeking an answer, on environmental protection,
Of ninety-day pads, and satellite inspection.
He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work,
He searched all the books, and looked up with a jerk.

And moving the book, away from his nose,
He gave a slight nod, and up he arose.
Santa said to the worker, "Research is the key.
With just a bit of reading, compliant you can be."

With the answer in hand, he hopped to his sleigh,
Lifting off safely; up, up and away.
Bellowing the answer, as he flew from the lot,
"NINETY-DAY PADS NEED INSPECTIONS - SATELLITES DO NOT!"

The worker understood, we all have these needs,
To understand regs, to work compliant deeds.
And as Santa flew away, you could hear a distant cheer,
"Merry Christmas to all, and a Happy New Year!!"
