TWO MINUTE TRAINING

SUBJECT: 'Twas the Night before Christmas - The Twenty-Seventh Annual Edition

'Twas the night before Christmas, and who could've foreseen,
The reduced work at Hanford, due to COVID-19.
Writing from my "work couch", this week's Two Minute Training,
Struggling for a topic, that's reflective and entertaining.

As I sit in my house, typing random ideas,
I hear a loud noise, and wonder what it is.
As I open the door, I am startled by the sight,
Of a man dressed in red, his clothes trimmed in white.

He looks like Santa Claus, as I peer through the door.
And socially distanced, at six feet or more.
I ask, "How is it going, in this pandemic?"
He says, "I follow protocols, and it's quite academic."

"My thick white beard, is my personal enclosure.
Since two billion homes, present quite an exposure".
I ask about the reindeer, "Are they taking care?"
He says, "The reindeer not so much", as they gave him a glare.

"Rudolf's an instigator, I have to take names.
As they persist in playing, all their reindeer games."
I say, "It's been a struggle, with normalcy gone.
I look forward to next year, with less... Amazon."

"As we have in past years, do you want to pose,
A question on anything, except Rudolph's red nose?"
Santa says, "Let's change it up, let's change it this year.
What is your wish, excluding reindeer?"

I say, "I know what I want - what everyone wants.
Fans in the stadiums, and open restaurants."
Santa says, "There is a light, I can see a vaccine.
Just continue to be safe, and keep your hands clean!"

It has been a dark year, but if we have hope.
We can go a little longer, and buy some more soap.
Fortunate I am, as a telecommuter,
I have plenty of work, and a laptop computer.

Santa said, "This year is over; this year is done.
Just a little more patience, until 2021."
Pulled by eight-plus reindeer, Santa shouted so clear,
"Happy Holidays to All, And a Happier New Year!"
